Will Buy New Screen For Village's Large Well and New Pump

The screen for the large village pump was pulled Tuesday evening and it was seen at once that a new one will be needed along with the replacement pump itself.

Supt. Walter I. Scott said that he would ascertain the size of mesh today and order a new screen at once. Now that the pump is pulled, the arrival of the new screen will make possible early installation of the new pump.

In the meantime the old pump is doing a nice job and the village officials are hoping that it will continue to carry the load until the big pump is placed in use again.

The new pump is being furnished by the company, which made the original installation. Cost to the village will be approximately $200, represented by half the labor, the new pump replacing the old one at no cost.

Citizens again are cautioned to be careful of fire because the pressure cannot be as strong with the small pump as the large one and any stress might break it down.

Christmas Seal Sale in County $1,200 at Start Churches Observe Day

Since the opening of the 1949 Christmas Seal Sale in Lake County on Monday, receipts have totaled $1,200, according to an estimate last night by county Seal Sale Chairman, Mrs. Gerard Fossland, of Winthrop Harbor.

Churches of all religious denominations throughout the county observed Christmas Seal Sunday on the eve of the opening of the campaign. Clergymen mentioned the work of the association from their pulpits any many churches carried Christmas Seal messages in their bulletins.

Posters advertising the campaign were distributed throughout the county by members of the board of directors of the association, usually with the help of local Boy Scout troops. Seal Sale trailers were distributed to the county theaters to publicize the campaign and Lake County's radio station, WKRS, will broadcast several 15 minute programs urging the purchase of Christmas Seals during the campaign.

The money derived from the sale of Christmas Seals is the sole support of the Lake County Tuberculosis Association in its year-round campaign of tuberculosis control and prevention, Mrs. Fossland said.

Rest Home at Pistakee Bay

The Villa Health resort has been opened as a new unit of the Villa Hotel resort owned and operated by Anna G. Zee at Pistakee Bay. Mrs. Zee came to the bay in 1946 and at the death of the resort's founder, Stanley Wrobel, became sole owner. Mrs. Zee has converted the hotel into a rest home.

The request is made by J. Edwin Porter, associate rent director of the Lake county rent area who will be in Antioch at the rent station between the hours of 9 a. m. and 12 noon each second and fourth Friday of the month.

New Coach and Team Make Debut Tonight Against Palatine High

Next Game on Tuesday with Wauconda-Papooses Play Tonight

Coach Richard Scott who makes his debut as coach of the Antioch Township High school basketball team along with the team this evening says the boys are primed to take Palatine.

In his starting lineup will be three seniors and two juniors. On the juniors, Tom and Bernard Haviland and Pete Poulos, senior will be the defense rest, Bob Wilton will be at the post position (center to the old timers) and either Harold Cardiff or Milford Stillson will start as forwards.

The Haviland brothers were outstanding on the sophomore team last year and all the rest are let-terms.

The game tonight will have as its preliminary the Frosh-Soph game between Antioch and Palatine. Coach Polley, with many new men on the squad will do a lot of sampling tonight to pick an effective combination.

After tonight's game the Sequoits will prepare for the game next Tuesday evening with Wauconda there. Because of the holiday there may not be much in the way of practice.

Referendum for Bond Issue for New County Jail Now Considered

The October grand jury for Lake County has recommended that the board of supervisors immediately plan a new jail.

A committee of the supervisors reported that the added repairs of the present jail would be useless. "If more people in Lake county took time to visit the jail they would learn for themselves the deplorable condition of the place," John Koski, Waukegan supervisor, said.

The plan would be to place the new jail north of the court house and use the old jail building as an annex for the present overcrowded county building.

Koski pointed out that construction of a new jail with office space for the sheriff's staff and living quarters for the sheriff, would open new office space in the overcrowded courthouse.

More Crowding
The establishment of the office of county supervisor of assessments means new crowding in the building and the present quarters of the sheriff's office in the courthouse could be used for the new department, he pointed out.

Koski also suggested using the old jail building as storage space for the old records of the county now taking up needed space in the courthouse vaults.

Koski and Supervisor Arthur Froelich indicated that they would initiate action to get a bond issue referendum on the April primary ballot.

"As long as the drawings are already available we could get the construction started in a minimum length of time," Froelich said, "if the voters approve the building."

In the balance of their report to Circuit Judge Ralph J. Dady, the grand jury said they found the jail clean and the prisoners well-cared for.

Cost Increases with Age

Cost of repairs on tractors which were used an average of 650 hours a year increased with the age of the machine, from one cent an hour in the first year to 21 cents in the ninth year.

Only Nitrogen Needed

Illinois apple and peach orchards need only nitrogen fertilizers for trees.

Antioch Pauses Today to Give Heartfelt Thanks

Business Places, and Schools Close, For The Yearly Holiday

Most of Antioch's business places will be closed today, Thanksgiving, while owners and employees alike celebrate the holiday which is unique to the United States.

Schools of the village will all be closed for the holiday and Friday, pupils and students returning to their classes on Monday.

Family gatherings and big dinners will be the order of the day. A few displaced persons coming from Europe to this area will be observing the holiday for the first time and adding their own thankfulness for a home in a land of freedom and plenty.

It is probable that a number of hunters will be out to get game that may have escaped in the two weeks of hunting already having taken place. The several turkey farms in Antioch township will provide the main item of dinners over a large area.

A pre-holiday event was the dance given by the Junior class following the opening basketball game last night at the Antioch Township High school.

Today many persons will dine at the resorts in the Antioch area, where special menus are planned.

Architects Describe Plans for Addition to Grade School Building

P. T. A. Club Hears Talks And Plans Meeting For Dec. 21

William Ganster and Arthur Henninghouse, Waukegan architects, described through the use of slides the plans for the proposed additions to the public grade school before the Parent Teacher club and others at the school Monday evening.

Presented for consideration were a gymnasium and cafeteria, a kindergarten, and class rooms, each of which was discussed at length.

The discussion followed a short business session and the architects were introduced by the school board.

Miss Donna Masopust of the sixth grade gave a fine exhibition of baton twirling to music provided by Hans Von Holwede.

The next meeting was changed by unanimous agreement from Monday, Dec. 19 to 1 p. m. Wednesday, Dec. 21. It will be combined with the Christmas party and entertainment the pupils present each year.

Mrs. C. A. Wolfenbarger and her committee served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

Movie in Color of Growth Of Leaf to Be Shown at Methodist Church Sunday

Using what are probably the first time-compressed colored movies of the photosynthesis of a leaf, preacher-scientist Dr. Irwin A. Moon reveals new secrets of nature in his sound film, "The God of Creation" to be shown here at the Methodist church of Antioch on Sunday evening at 7:00 o'clock. The picture is being sponsored for the entire community by the Methodist Youth Fellowship as the first of a series of regular Sunday evening programs to be held on the fourth Sunday of each month.

The "God of Creation" was produced in the Los Angeles branch of the Moody Bible Institute and will be projected here by L. F. Skibitske. The picture has been shown to more than two million people.

In the third sequence of "The God of Creation" space and its galaxies of stars are explored through the telescopes of Mt. Wilson Observatory. Then in sharp contrast to the immensities of the universe, the wonders of the everyday world are colorfully portrayed. In this part of the film, plants grow and buds blossom in a few seconds by the time-compressing photo technique. Close-up shots of a caterpillar wiggling into a butterfly are also shown.

For the third part of his film, Dr. Moon permits the audience to examine the minute perfection of the microscopic world. Sunlight falls on leaves, manufacturing plant food in the process of photosynthesis. Through photomicrography, millions of paramoecia are seen swimming in a drop of water.

God has created this complex world, says Dr. Moon at the climax of the film, but he declares, "the miracle of all miracles is that this God loves us." He then explains God's plan of redemption for the world.

The Lakeside Rebekah lodge will hold a card party Tuesday, Nov. 29, at the I. O. O. F. hall, Mary Ellis is chairman of the committee in charge.

Illinois Farm Bureau Opposes Brannon Plan; Approves Gas Tax Rise

Illinois farmers are demanding a long range, flexible farm price support program, according to resolutions adopted at the 35th annual meeting of the Illinois Agricultural Association which ended Nov. 17 in the Hotel Sherman, Chicago.

They voiced their opposition to the Brannon plan in other resolutions approved by 500 voting delegates to the convention which attracted 5,500 farmers and their families.

The delegates also asked for an increase in the state gas tax provided a fair share of the money is allocated for use on township and road district roads; urged keeping headquarters of the American Farm Bureau Federation in Chicago instead of moving it to Washington.

In other actions, the IAA pledged support of the Gateway amendment, designed to make it easier to amend the state constitution; urged that a bi-partisan commission be appointed to manage the Illinois State Fair; called for more efficient and economical administration of the federal government; and reaffirmed support of the extension program.

Urge Inspection of Cars
The delegates also approved resolutions urging annual inspection of motor cars as a highway safety measure; opposed any increase in the maximum weight limits for trucks or busses; suggested more high schools sponsor driver training courses; asked that anti-trust laws be applied equally to all monopolistic practices whether in industry or labor unions; and approved decentralization of administration of soil conservation and agricultural adjustment programs.

Other resolutions called for curbs on attempts by the executive branch of the federal government to shape farm policy; urged that wool prices be supported by a loan program as are other storable commodities, rather than by a direct purchase program; and recommended that if acreage allotments are put in force, that more emphasis be put on good land use rather than on past crop acreages.

Governor to Ask Gas Tax
Gov. Adlai Stevenson, one of the main convention speakers, told the farmers he will go on asking for a gas tax increase "until we get it, or the people get a new governor."

A gas tax raise is needed, he said, because the hard roads are "all (Continued on Page 8)"

For Illinois as a whole in October, $25,557,206 was invested by residents in Series "E" Bonds, compared with $7,409,589 in the same month of the year before and $26,630,213 in September, 1949.

A new Christmas enclosure for U. S. Savings Bonds to be given as gifts is now available at Banks and Post Offices. These are free.

Polio Again Hits Antioch Area and Four Are Stricken

Warren Wells, and Three Dorsey Children in St. Therese

Return of polio during the past week saw four new cases in the Antioch area, bringing to 10 the number of cases here and to 90 the number of cases in Lake county.

Latest to be stricken is Warren Wells, 19, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Wells of Rte. 173, east of the village who was taken to St. Therese hospital in Waukegan Monday evening. The disease has attacked his neck and upper spine but has not caused any paralysis of the limbs as yet.

Nurses who are specialists in the care of polio patients and who had been dismissed after what was thought to have been the final case for the season had left the hospital, were called back to St. Therese last week by the outbreak of six new cases.

Three children of the William Dorsey family on Edwards rd., on the east township line were admitted to the hospital last Friday. They are Eugene, Jack, and Marcella. One boy has already suffered paralysis, but the others have not been affected in that way.

Return Puzzles Doctors
Return of polio long after the time cold weather is supposed to have ended it, is puzzling doctors. This fall has been somewhat warmer than usual and it is believed that the warm weather may have prolonged the season.

The return of infantile paralysis came on the heels of a meeting of the Lake County chapter of the Foundation for Infantile Paralysis at Farnsworth where plans were made for the annual March of Dimes drive in January.

Figures released at this meeting revealed that the Lake county unit has spent to date $52,112 for the care of polio patients, using all of the $21,000 in the treasury and officials having drawn on the national fund for $31,000. The 39,000 cases over the entire United States is expected to be increased to 42,000 by the end of the year costing $31,000,000.

Average Cost is $619
The average cost for each patient in Lake county has been $619. On this basis the cost to the 10 patients will be about $6,190, nearly five times the $1,350 raised last January here through donations.

Ed Gressen, chairman of the Antioch Township area for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, says he is now organizing for the drive in January and would like volunteers who wish to aid in this worthy cause to call him at 531-R.

Lake county has unusual success in arresting most of its cases through the use of aureomycin. Of the 41 cases at St. Therese hospital, where the drug was used not one of the patients emerged with permanent paralysis.

Henry D. Cable, Age 66 Dies at Farm Home on Rte. 21 Near Lake Villa

Henry D. Cable, 66, of Rte. 21 south of Lake Villa, died unexpectedly at 8:45 a. m. Tuesday at his farm home.

First aid in attempting to revive him from a heart attack was received from the Antioch Rescue squad and the Lake Villa fire department but without success.

Mr. Cable was born Dec. 26, 1882 on the farm on which he died and with the exception of 14 years spent in Grayslake, he had made his home at his birthplace.

Surviving are the wife, formerly Edna Little of Grass Lake; an uncle, John Hart, of Round Lake and four cousins.

The funeral service will be held at 2 p. m. Friday at the Strang funeral home in Antioch with the Rev. A. T. DeSalma of Waupun, Wis., in charge. Burial will be in the Grayslake cemetery. The body is now at the funeral home.

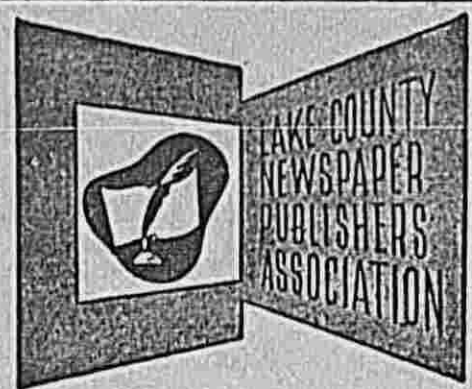

Deer Seen at Fox Lake

A buck deer has been seen on an island in Fox Lake near the DeBray resort. Three-pointer animal will be caught and taken to southern part of state where wild deer are abundant. The deer, a rarity in Lake County is believed to have wandered here from Wisconsin where there is a record high in the number of the animals.

Back to the Show Windows

What does a retail store's show window stand for?

First of all, of course, it is designed to interest you in buying goods. If you like what you see, and consider the price fair, you'll probably become a customer. If not, you'll move on to another store that meets your needs better.

Beyond that, however, the show window is about as good a visual example of how this country works as we can find. We pride ourselves, and justly, on our magnificent system of mass production, which has given a vast abundance of goods of all kinds, which provides much of our employment, and which has helped raise our living standards far beyond that of any other major nation.

However, mass production would not be a success, or even a possibility, without mass distribution. The goods from the factories must be moved, swiftly, efficiently, and economically, into the hands of the people who will use them. American retailing is superbly geared to perform that job. It believes that the sound way to do business is to turn over a large volume of merchandise at a small unit profit. And what keeps that principle always at work is aggressive competition between stores of all kinds and sizes.

Visitors from abroad, and especially the few who come here from the countries within the Soviet orbit, are always amazed and disbelieving when they see a typical American shopping center—whether it be Fifth Avenue or Main Street. They are so used to a subsistence standard of living, and an economy of scarcity at home, that they believe it to be a universal state of affairs. Free enterprise, as exemplified by the shop windows, shows them how wrong they are.

Pure Robbery

In a speech made in Portland, Oregon, Congressman Ralph W. Gwinn, of New York, said: "What we have in this country today is a 'Robin Hood' view of life, and it is a program which is pure exploitation, pure robbery and pure rationalization. Robin Hood robbed the merchants with the ostensible purpose of distributing the 'take' among the poor, but you notice he always rode an excellent horse and had a well-equipped retinue. . . . After we have exhausted the rich man, the corporations and the creative group, then will come the working man."

The apathy with which the public regards the sorry financial mess our government is in is one of the worst current signs. We have a national debt of more than $250,000,000,000. We also have very large governmental tax revenues, due to high employment and business activity. Yet we will run a deficit of $5,000,000,000 or more during this fiscal year—and if some of the big spending "social welfare" schemes which were tabled by Congress last session are approved during the next, future deficits will probably be far larger.

Any economist will tell you that we have just about reached the limit in getting money out of the corporations and the wealthy people—they are taxed to the hilt now. If more tax revenue is needed, the man of small and moderate means will have to provide it. It is that man who has the greatest interest in cutting every avoidable expense in government, and returning to fiscal sanity.

The Robin Hood idea will eventually bankrupt us all.

Man Retires at Age 35 To Spend Life at Sea

CHICAGO.—A man who learned to love the water when he paddled a canoe as a boy will be seeing a good part of the ocean blue from now on.

Stanley A. Dashew, of Grand Rapids, Mich., has retired at 35 with a wife, two children, and a 76-foot two-masted schooner.

The family plan to set sail on a cruise that will carry them from Lake Michigan to the St. Lawrence river, the Atlantic Ocean, the Gulf of Mexico, the Orinoco river in South America, the Panama Canal, the Pacific and the Gulf of California.

Dashew was born in New York. When he got out of school, he went to work as an office machine salesman. He became branch manager for western Michigan. Between times, he wrote articles for national publications on yachting and safety at sea.

Meanwhile he and his wife acquired one sailing vessel after another of various sizes and covered many of the inland waters of the nation.

Finally, Dashew decided to retire. He bought a schooner, the Constellation, last year after the coast guard had finished training officers aboard it. The Dashews sailed it to Lake Michigan, where it was stripped and refitted.

Mosquitoes

It is only the female mosquito that needs blood as food, which they obtain not only from human beings, but also from wild animals and birds, including occasionally even cold-blooded animals. When such blood is not immediately available they feed on plant juices to some extent.

Cooking Liver

Calf or beef liver is cooked best at a very moderate heat for a very short time. It should be removed from the frying pan as soon as it has changed color throughout.

Marine Colonel Still Has Two Jap Bullets in Back

EL TORO, CALIF.—Marine Lieutenant Colonel Herbert C. Freuler, executive officer of marine air group 12, learned recently that he has been carrying two 7mm Japanese machine gun bullets in his back for the past eight years.

The discovery was made by Dr. Robert King when the colonel reported to the station dispensary for a routine check-up and X-ray. Freuler was wounded while flying in the defense of Wake Island in 1941 but a medical examination at that time gave no indication that the bullets remained in his body.

Local medical authorities said that the bullets will probably never bother him and very likely will not be removed. Colonel Freuler was a prisoner of war of the Japanese for more than three years following the fall of Wake Island.

Electric Batteries

Electric batteries, for ringing doorbells are frequently placed in very insecure locations, so that a slight pull upon the loose terminal wire may precipitate the battery upon the head of the unwary. If ordinary cells are used they should be placed in a box. It is more satisfactory to operate a bell from a bell-ringing transformer, if electric service is available.

New Role for Helicopter

The versatile helicopter has found itself a new role — stocking remote lakes with game fish. The Olympic national park in Washington state witnessed what is believed to be the first such exhibition when a low-hovering sky jeep "planted" thousands of trout fry in 15 high lakes of the Olympic mountains.

Poultry House Litter

Chopped straw makes a good litter for poultry houses, since much of the pithy inside surface is exposed to absorb water.

Australian Ladybird

All California oranges and lemons coming to market today are made possible by the work of the Australian ladybird. This little beetle was first introduced in San Francisco to counteract an insect war on the orange and lemon groves. The beetle began devouring the insects at a tremendous rate, and single-handed saved the citrus coast.

Edward Grieg

Like most little boys who take piano lessons, Edward Grieg never wanted to practice, but he did like to make up tunes. Grieg grew up to be the great composer of the famous "Peer Gynt Suites" for orchestra, and other immortal works.

Alchemist's Dream

The goal which the alchemist sought in vain has now become a stark reality. The atom bomb, the artificially prepared radioactive isotopes, or the atomic fission of today are successful illustrations of the unsuccessful attempts of yesterday at transmutation of base metals into gold.

Grow Legumes

One way to supply the soil with organic matter and keep the productivity high is to grow legumes with grasses.

Junior Class Play Was Success With Good Crowd Both Evenings

The Junior Class play "Out on a Limb" given last Thursday and Friday at the high school auditorium was quite a success. The production was better than usual and the play itself was a hit. The cast was so well balanced that no one had any outstanding part and this gave opportunity for all members to show at an advantage.

Between the second and third acts, Miss Jeannette Darrough, coach, was presented two dozen of American beauty roses by the Junior class and a double strand of pearls by the members of the cast.

There was a good attendance both nights with the last night crowd topping the first.

Horn-Books on Display At State Library Used During 1600's-1700's

Springfield, Ill.—A current exhibit being shown by the Illinois State Library contrasts the types of school textbooks used by pupils in early American colonial times with present-day reading materials for children. Secretary of State Edward J. Barrett, state librarian, said today.

Grouped with the modern, attractively-bound, generously illustrated, brightly colored volumes are several reproductions of horn-books, which were used in the 1600's and 1700's; battle-dores, which came into use during the 1700's, and later developments such as miniature books published mainly in the early and middle 1800's, Mr. Barrett said.

Horn-books were small, paddle-shaped pieces of wood, usually on which a lesson sheet was placed and then covered with transparent horn so that small and frequently smudged fingers would not completely obliterate the lesson material, the state librarian explained.

Most horn-books were plain pieces of wood, but some were elaborately carved, while others were made of leather, ivory and even gingerbread. Historians say the gingerbread ones were most in demand. The name, "horn-book," came from the fact that the horn covering was obtained by soaking the horns of oxen and sheep in water, heating them and pressing the substance flat. The lesson printed on the paper or parchment beneath the horn was usually the alphabet, plus some religious message, such as the Lord's Prayer.

Battle-dores, a later development, were at first similar to the horn-books. One of the definitions of the word is "a light flat bat or racket used in striking a shuttlecock." As the paper-making process advanced, they were made of cardboard and paper, and handles were no longer placed on them, but the name continued to be used.

With the printing of miniature books, the lesson material was expanded, and such stories as "Tom Thumb," "Who Killed Cock Robin," and "Robinson Crusoe" were presented in this manner.

Aside from the physical characteristics of the old and the new textbooks, one of the greatest contrasts is in the types of stories prepared for children, Secretary Barrett said. The older books and pamphlets were filled mainly with sad and even tragic tales, while today's stories are usually gay accounts of the activities of children and humorous animal stories.

Methodist Church Elects Building Committee and Plans School Addition

The Antioch Methodist church building committee was elected at the recent quarterly conference which was held at the church. The five committee members elected at the conference were M. C. Cain, Louis Horton, Mrs. Elmer Hunter, Frank Spangard and B. G. Guillaume.

This newly elected body will function as the permanent committee responsible for the building of the new proposed addition to the church which will be used mainly as an addition for church school rooms and recreation facilities. The committee wasted no time beginning its new task. The Rev. G. Richard Tuttle called the first committee meeting to elect a chairman and to lay out its platform. Frank Spangard was elected chairman and Mrs. Martha Hunter was elected to take over as secretary. The first action by chairman Spangard was to appoint B. G. Guillaume as publicity chairman.

The former, temporary building committee was terminated upon election of the present group, but the members of the former committee were all chosen to be on the new committee. A list of architects were presented to the meeting and Louis Horton was authorized to personally contact the architects. A meeting will be arranged for each architect who wishes to present his qualifications before the building committee.

Dr. William Vernon Middleton of Philadelphia, executive secretary of the Methodist Board of Missions and Church Extension, was in the village Tuesday accompanied by Dr. Weldon Bradburn, district superintendent, viewing the local church's building needs. He indicated that he would provide without cost a special representative from the board to help raise the money for the improvement.

Feed, Labor Main Cost
Feed and labor make up 70 to 80 percent of the costs of producing milk.

Plan Cost $15 to $25

The cost of establishing a complete soil conservation plan is $15 to $25 an acre.

Give Them Exercise

One of the essentials in producing good, strong, prolific, breeding animals is plenty of exercise.

72 Cubic Feet Needed

On the average, a septic tank with a capacity of at least 72 cubic feet is suitable for one family.

SALEM

Miss Olive Hope has returned from Cassville, Wis., where she spent the past two weeks visiting relatives.

Mrs. Frank Schmidt, of Kenosha, is visiting her son, Alfred Schmidt, and family.

Mrs. Natalie Stroupe is visiting relatives at Howard this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Heines and daughter, of Kenosha, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Elfers and children and Mrs. Mer Fleming and son, of Burlington, Wis., of Rock Lake, Mrs. Elton, and Mrs. Harold Olson, and son, of Racine, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. David Elfers.

Mrs. George Bremer, Mrs. Ernest Schaiten and Mrs. Minor Hartnell were Milwaukee shoppers Wednesday.

Mr. Orville Riggs, Mr. Emerald Schultz and Louis Slamar left Friday for northern Wisconsin, deer hunting.

The bazaar held at the Methodist church Friday evening was largely attended and a nice sum was added to the treasury.

Frozen Fish

Fish can be frozen in solid ice for long periods and still survive. Naturalists say they should thaw out gradually, however.

Spray Trees With Water

Codling moth larvae overwintering in the bark of apple trees can be eradicated by spraying the trunks with water under high pressure.

Feed Balanced Rations

Properly balanced rations promote faster gains in young livestock and produce more desirable carcasses than rations lacking one or more essential nutrients.

Orange and Yellow

When planning on the painting and redecorating of your home, remember that variations of yellow and orange can be used successfully in any room in the house. Care should be taken, however, that they are not used in too great strength, for they are considered to be warm colors.

Feeding Calf

A calf gets the right food formula at birth; however, it's up to the dairyman to continue a good feed program such as providing the right amounts of concentrates, roughage, and plenty of green grazing.

Cottonseed

Linters, from cottonseed, are an important part of photographic film.

THIS WEEK'S BIBLE DATA

A new edition of the King James version of the Bible with 7,300 footnotes has been recently published by the Oxford University Press.

The 1,760 page Bible took 10 years in preparation by 36 consulting and contributing editors selected from churches, colleges, parents and children's groups.

And Then Some—

A prominent salesman, now retired, summed up his success in three simple words: "And Then Some."

"I discovered at an early age," he said, "that most of the differences between average people and top people could be explained in three words. The top people did what was expected of them—and then some!"

"They were thoughtful of others; they were considerate and kind—and then some! They met their obligations and responsibilities fairly and squarely—and then some! They were good friends to their friends—and then some! They could be counted on in an emergency—and then some!"

—Managers' Handbook

Observations—

Ten tons of steel are used every week in the United States to make the tiny staples which hold book matches together.

Since 1840, every President who was elected in a year ending in zero has died in office. (Harrison, Lincoln, Garfield, McKinley, Harding, F. D. Roosevelt.)

Camel a Bad Actor—

The camel, often called the ship of the desert, is one of the ugliest and meanest of all animals. Its temper is said and sullen, interrupted by fits of anger and rage. The personal habits of the camel are so bad it has few friends, even among other camels.

With Justice to All—

The hit-and-run driver was brought to trial. His lawyer pleaded eloquently in his behalf. "Your Honor, the plaintiff must have been walking very carelessly. My client is a very careful driver. He has been driving a car for 11 years." "Your Honor," shouted counsel for plaintiff, "I can prove that my client would win this case without further argument. He has been walking for 45 years!"—Woodmen of the World Magazine.

This Week's Recipe for That Turkey Dressing—

For added flavor to your turkey dressing, mix in about a half pound of whole Italian chestnuts. (Boil chestnuts from 15 to 20 minutes and then shell by slitting the shell on the flat side with a sharp knife.) As the Italian chestnuts are not always available, a fine substitute (and some people like them better) are cashew nuts which can be purchased in almost any drug or candy store. A quarter to a half a pound or more according to amount of dressing will make your dressing taste like something "just out of this world." Place the nuts in whole. Please send us your recipes or household tips.

Nut Cake—

CUSTOMER: "A glass of soda water without flavor, please."

SODAJERK: "Which flavor do you wish it without?"

CUSTOMER: "What flavors have you?"

SODAJERK: "We have vanilla, chocolate, orange and lime."

CUSTOMER: "I would like it without peach."

SODAJERK: "Sorry, we have no peach but I can make you a special without raspberry."

It a girl doesn't watch her figure, the boys won't.

Drinking does not drown sorrow; it only irrigates it.—Denver Post.

TREAT YOURSELF to a good time and take your wife along—occasionally.

This Week's Quizzer—

What congressman was the son of one President and the father of another. Answer next week.

Answer to last week's quizzer. How long will it take a tailor to cut up 12 yards of cloth cutting 2 yards each day? Answer—5 days.

BUYING A USED CAR?

Uncle Sam Says

School bells are again ringing and thousands of children are back in classrooms all over the country. And many of these little boys and girls are crossing the thresholds of learning for the first time, starting the great adventure of beginning an education in a free land. They can go all the way, and that means college, if they learn to save. The School Savings Program teaches them to be thrifty and children who learn to save will certainly be better citizens tomorrow. You parents—be sure there is a School Savings Program at your school and be sure too, that your children are investing in U. S. School Savings Stamps.

Puncture Preventive

A hundred - and - one different metal objects lost on the highways can puncture tires. The Kentucky highway department's new 5-ton magnet, truck-mounted, picked up 25 pounds of metallic substance in a recent six-mile run. In each pound there are 100 possible punctures, is the estimate. The magnet will patrol all state roads gathering nails, screws, tin cans, wire, scrap metal, bottle tops, etc.

Cost of Foot Troubles

Foot trouble accounts for an annual loss of more than 100 million dollars in U. S. wages and production according to a recent survey, and every third person in this country complains more or less constantly about aching feet, with "invisible hotfoot," a burning, itching sensation, high on the list of pedal ills.

Eugene Field's Monument

Twenty-seven years after Eugene Field died, children from all parts of the country took pennies to school to help pay for a statue to his memory. The statue, showing bronze figures of an angel and two sleeping children, stands in Lincoln Park, Chicago. The beloved children's poet was born in September 1850.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Thursday, November 24, will be: THANKSGIVING

The Golden Text is:

"In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you" (1 Thess. 5:18).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon, the following are from the Bible:

"Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands. Serve the Lord with gladness: come before his presence with singing. Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him and bless his name. . . For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen. (Ps. 100: 1, 2, 4; Rom. 11: 36).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"God is not moved by the breath of praise to do more than He has already done, nor can the infinite do less than bestow all good, since He is unchanging wisdom and Love. . . Asking God to be God is a vain repetition. God is 'the same yesterday, and to-day, and forever'; and He who is immutably right will do right without being reminded of His province. . . Are we really grateful for the good already received? Then we shall avail ourselves of the blessings we have, and thus be fitted to receive more. Gratitude is much more than a verbal expression of thanks. Action expresses more gratitude than speech" (pp. 2, 3).

Biggest Baby

World's biggest baby is the elephant's young, which weighs from 150 to 200 pounds at birth. The Indian and African species differ considerably. The larger African elephant, with its huge, floppy ears, has a hollowed out back, while that of the Indian variety is arched.

Still Unreplaced

The automobile has replaced the horse and buggy. The automatic washing machine has just about put the washboard out of business. But, nothing has as yet been found to take the place of a dog in the heart of a boy.
